

FISHERMEN'S TALES AT CERVIA

printable version

The Salt Museum of Cervia (MUSA) is opening its doors for a special photographic exhibition centred on the sea and the life of fishermen. The “Gente di Mare” (People of the Sea) exhibition also features local fishermen who will exhibit various techniques of their trade, like mending nets and tying knots.

Visitors can also watch the ancient technique of sail painting, with the traditional designs, colours and symbols, demonstrated by members of “La Pantofla” cultural association. The photographic exhibition is open every evening till the 4th July 2020 between 20.30 till midnight, with “fishermen's tales” every evening Tuesday to Saturday during the period.

Info: Tel. +39.0544.979302 www.musa.comunecervia.it

Posted on 18 Jun 2020 by Editor

2 ITALIAN CANDIDATES FOR ARCHAEOLOGY PRIZE

printable version

Italy is putting forward two candidates for this year's International Archaeology Discovery Award, now into its sixth edition. The award is dedicated to Syrian archaeologist Khaled al-Asaad, the head of antiquities in the ancient city of Palmyra who was killed by Islamic militants in 2015 for refusing to reveal the hiding place of the museum's most precious antiquities.

Read more...

Posted on 14 Jun 2020 by Editor

BRERA GALLERY BACK TO BUSINESS

printable version

Home

About Us

Contact Us

Italian Flag

The Lost Ships of Nemi

The Goddess of the lake

The flight of the last Stuart King

Useful Links

- Enit.it
- Vatican Museum
- Italian Weather
- Italian Wine
- Ville Venete
- The Touring Club of Italy
- Roman Road Walks
- Wanted in Rome
- fai-international.org
(the National Trust for Italy)
- Mibac
- www.Italy-museums.com
(Italian Museums)

SE Optimization

CMS Reports